

Pacific Horticulture Presents Garden Lovers' Croatian Journey October 2026

Discover Croatia's Most Enchanting Gardens—A Boutique Tour Awaits

Coming soon for OCTOBER 2026. Join the Interest list today for priority sign up when the tour is released late November this year. Registration will be on a first come, first serve basis. Are you longing for an immersive experience where history, lush landscapes, and vibrant blooms intertwine? Let the splendors of Croatia's gardens inspire your senses! Our upcoming tour is designed for those who seek not only the magic of the Adriatic, but also the tranquility of curated private retreats and storied public gardens. Journey from the ancient city walls of Dubrovnik to the cosmopolitan heart of Zagreb, all while wandering amid Croatia's most breathtaking gardens.

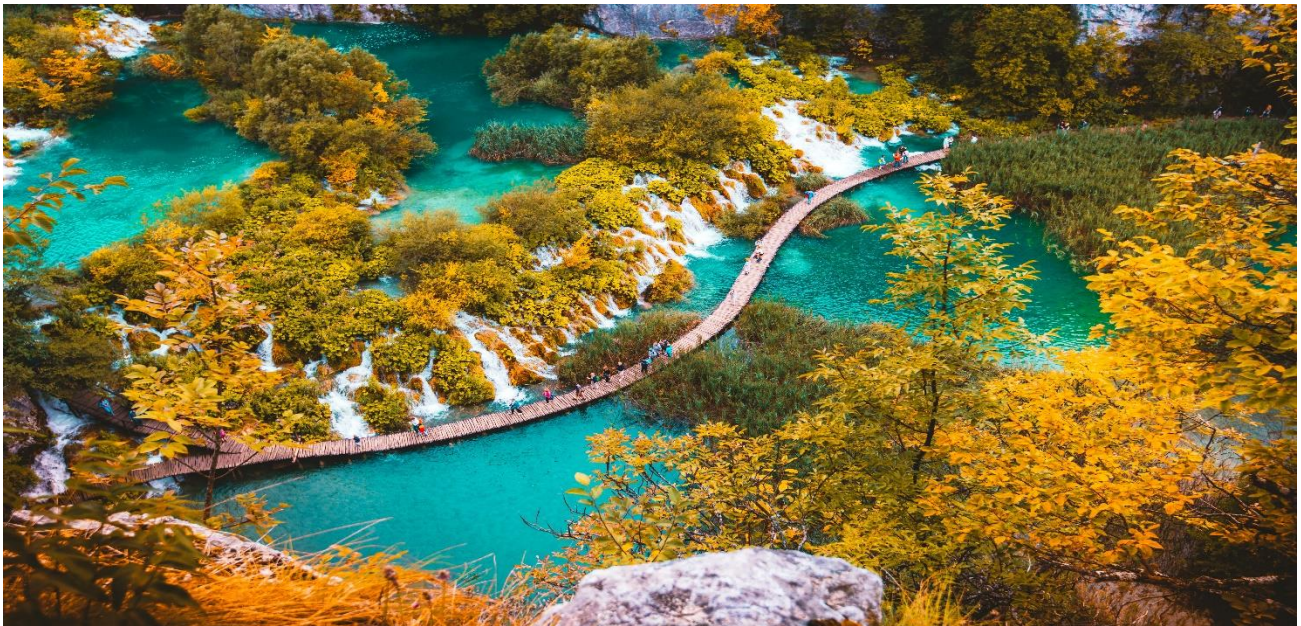

Highlights of Your Croatian Garden Tour

- Begin in Dubrovnik: Explore both public and private gardens nestled inside and beyond the city's famed walls, where Mediterranean greenery meets sparkling sea vistas. Many of these enchanting gardens have served as filming locations for renowned movies and television series, lending cinematic allure to the city's natural beauty. A full day in Montenegro will be included here.
- Island Stay in Hvar: Relax and rejuvenate on this sun-kissed island, known for its aromatic lavender fields, centuries-old gardens, and hidden horticultural gems surrounded by the Adriatic's blue embrace.
- Plitvička Jezera National Park: Marvel at a living masterpiece of lakes, waterfalls, numerous plant species and wild flora. Stroll wooden pathways as you discover vibrant meadows and forests bursting with native blooms in Croatia's most celebrated natural reserve.
- The Mediterranean Gardens of Istria: Immerse yourself in the region's rich tapestry of olive groves, vineyard landscapes, and unique Mediterranean gardens—many of which are privately curated and open exclusively for our guests. Truffle Hunting in Istria: Embark on a guided truffle hunting adventure through the lush forests of Istria, learning the secrets of these prized delicacies from local experts and savoring the flavors of freshly found truffles.
- Finale in Zagreb: Conclude your adventure in the vibrant capital, where you'll enjoy guided walks through regal city parks, botanical treasures, and secret green havens known only to locals. Market Tour & Cooking Class - Experience the lively pulse of Zagreb's local markets with a guided tour, then roll up your sleeves for a hands-on cooking class featuring fresh Croatian ingredients and traditional recipes.

Exclusive Experiences

- Special access to private gardens and estates rarely open to the public
- Guided tours led by horticultural experts and passionate local gardeners
- Guides overviews on Mediterranean planting and sustainable design
- Wine tastings, gourmet meals, and picnics amid scenic landscapes
- Leisurely island escapes, cultural visits, and moments to simply breathe in the beauty all around you
- Truffle hunting adventure in Istria, with local truffle experts
- Market tour and interactive cooking class in Zagreb, culminating in a shared feast of your creations.

Who Should Join?

This tour is ideal for:

- Members of Pacific Horticulture, current or future
- Garden lovers seeking inspiration and tranquility
- Travelers interested in both culture and nature
- Culinary explorers eager to taste and create local dishes
- Couples, friends, solo explorers

Let Croatia's Gardens Reawaken Your Senses

Full itinerary and costing will be released at the end of November 2025. Registration will be taken from interest list, and the tour will be filled on a first come first serve basis.

